I have pictures from my friend Dave who has just opened up the following for preorders, Commander package for Masterpiece MP-02 and MP-04.

The package consists of Complete Roller set for MP-04 and Gun for Ultra Magnus of MP-02.

Hmmm...That's interesting. But I wish there was just one official product for these MPs. I'll still stick in getting the battle roller though. AT least that has some prospect. hehe.

Hey bro,

dont ever say sorry hor what are we were for.. to share info and gather as many fans as possible mah.

Well, maybe to answer your question, as some of you would already know:

1) yes you can preorder this, as maybe some of you guys are already customers of Dave's. However, if you guys need any help, I can gladly try to arrange for more from him. (no promises though as its already been two days since announcement)

2) price is set at $35 a set

3) release date is likely to be give and take 2 weeks from now.

No problem bro. Let me try to see if there is any arrangements I could make with him.

Perhaps if he allows, I will try to get him to secure a limited number of this set for TF.sg so that members here can enjoy owning it as well.

If all goes well, then we will proceed with the normal PO/MO for this.

Stay tuned!
